

Terms and conditions Traderson Foundation

RULES

ENTERING OF THE CHARITABLE

DONATIONS IN ADVANTAGE

Traderson Foundation

1. Present "Rules" define the general procedure of actions of interested parties and the persons, having active intention to bring in advantage of Traderson Foundation a monetary charitable donation in any currency .

2. It is considered established and authentically defined that any actions of any person, clearly and unambiguously directed on entering into advantage of Traderson Foundation of a charitable donation - mean the unconditional active consent of this person to carry out these Rules and to consider them for themselves obligatory. Giving about it of any demand or the letter in the form of the electronic document or the document on the paper carrier - is considered as well the statement of this person for its joining to these Rules.

3. Any person, expressing active desire to bring in advantage of Traderson Foundation monetary charitable donation - thereby expresses the consent with principles and ideals of world co-operative movement, with charitable mission of Traderson Foundation and the purposes of its activity reflected in aggregate in all documents of Traderson Foundation, including its Charter. Any mentioned applicant from the moment of registration of the intention - is considered the Philanthropist of Traderson Foundation.

4. A subject of the obligation of the Philanthropist which it undertakes to execute, the order of donations by the Philanthropist in favour of Traderson Foundation of charitable monetary donations on a gratuitous basis is.

Traderson Foundation activity on acceptance from the citizens of all countries of the world and the organisations of charitable payments, gratuitous donations and grants - is directly provided by Traderson Foundation charter .

It is considered established that the Philanthropist without any counter conditions agrees and undertakes to bring charitable payments (gratuitous donations) in favour of direct Traderson Foundation in terms and in sizes as it will be to it convenient.

5. The sum of brought charitable donations should be in advance clearly defined the Philanthropist; these payments should be brought in advantage of Traderson Foundation in the monetary form in any currency.

Payments of a charitable donations are carried out by means of bank transfers of money resources of the Philanthropist to Traderson Foundation bank accounts as directly, and with use of bank payment cards of the basic world payment systems.

6. It is considered established that the Benefactor contributes charitable donations for free and irretrievably.

7. It is considered established that a source of entering of charitable donations is the net profit of the Philanthropist, free from any actions and obligations that the Philanthropist and confirms with the actions, making corresponding monetary donations. It is considered that the Philanthropist confirms with all actions and guarantees that, bringing charitable payments, it does not operate to the detriment of interests of any third parties and does not pursue the purposes of extraction of any unfair and unreasonable tax benefit. The philanthropist also thereby confirms and guarantees that, bringing these charitable donations it operates exclusively on its own behalf, instead of in interests of the uncertain third parties.

8. It is considered by default obviously and unambiguously pre-established that entering by the Philanthropist of monetary charitable donations is not connected with extraction by Traderson Foundation of any incomes (profit), does not assume realisation by Traderson Foundation of any enterprise activity, does not assume rendering by Traderson Foundation in favour of the Philanthropist of any services or transfer to it of any goods or things, does not assume from Traderson Foundation of any counter execution in favour of the Philanthropist and does not pursue such purposes.

9. It is established that the Traderson Foundation becomes the appropriate proprietor and the owner of all sums of the brought charitable payments and uses the received money resources and actives at own discretion for realisation of the authorised activity, including for financing of scientific workings out in branches trade and High-tech and innovative production, payment of charitable grants to citizens and the organisations (including the projects of alternative power occupied with workings out), for any investments (including in securities and precious metals), and also realises investment programs in High-tech and innovative production sphere, and also directs the received means for any other purposes provided by the Traderson Foundation charter.

10. It is established that the means of charitable donations received by Traderson Foundation will be used by Traderson Foundation in all countries of the world without any restrictions connected with opinion of the Philanthropist.

11. It is proclaimed unconditionally and certainly that the Traderson Foundation undertakes not to carry out any enterprise activity including with use of the received charitable payments of the Philanthropist, and not to take any unreasonable benefit from these charitable donations, and also not to finance at all any political activity in any form in any country of the world.

12. It is established that any persons, both physical, and legal, taking place the stay in any country and being shareholders and members of any consumer co-operative society or a consumer society where it would not settle down and where it would not carry out the constant activity - are potential Philanthropists of Traderson Foundation and have the primary right before other persons to bring donations to Fund at any time and in any size at own discretion.

13. It is established that the founders and members of the fund in any country of the world have the preemptive right to be contributors of charitable contributions in favor of the Traderson Foundation. It is also possible to make charitable donations to the authorized capital of the Traderson Foundation and other persons, both legal and physical, but this requires a special permit (resolution) of the Fondation's Board for each specific case.

14. The present it is proclaimed that any charitable donations are gratuitous, voluntary, and are carried out both in monetary, and in the property form, including in the form of those or other property rights, including the rights challenged. Charitable donations can on occasion under the special agreement at the initiative of the Philanthropist be bound by promise Traderson Foundation to use them on realisation of any certain charitable programs and projects what the given Philanthropist will wish to specify directly.

By the present it is established that have no value motives and the bases on which this or that philanthropist has decided to grant the corresponding sums of charitable donations (payments) on advantage of Traderson Foundation: officials of Traderson Foundation have not the right to discuss the economic or extra-economic reasons which have induced them to offer corresponding sums of money or corresponding property in favour of Traderson Foundation with philanthropists.

The Traderson Foundation starts with a principle of a presumption of conscientiousness and respectableness of actions of the philanthropist and guarantees the loyalty to any Philanthropists.

15. It is established that charitable donations for the sum to 10 000 euros (or a corresponding equivalent of this sum in any currency) from physical persons, or for the sum to 200 000 euros (or a corresponding equivalent of this sum in any currency) from legal bodies - are accepted by Fund without any restrictions and preliminary conditions and drawing up of any special documents and Agreements. Thus for entering of donations it is enough to Philanthropist to fill the corresponding electronic demand, or to address in Fund executive powers orally, or to make payment with use of a bank card and systems of electronic communications ("Internet-ekvajring") or simply to send the filled form of the demand mail, having specified from popular sources corresponding bank details of Traderson Foundation.

16. It is established that for entering of charitable donations for the sum, big than it is specified above, necessarily it is required as a preliminary condition:

- 1) preliminary check of the person and capacity of the philanthropist,
- 2) preliminary check of a diligent origin of money resources of the philanthropist,
- 3) the preliminary consent of Fund to accept corresponding donations, and
- 4) the conclusion with Traderson Foundation of the corresponding Agreement (Contract) in the form of the uniform separate document.

All these specified preliminary actions are carried out by Board of Traderson Foundation or the President of Traderson Foundation in a stage of exploratory talk with the potential philanthropist.

17. It is established that during preliminary check of the person and capacity of the philanthropist the President of Traderson Foundation and-or Board are obliged to make at least any two actions from the following list of actions:

- 1) to request of the potential philanthropist the detailed data about a permanent residence of the philanthropist (persons or the organisations) to request the general registration data of the legal person;
- 2) to request of the potential philanthropist a simple copy of the passport, other citizen of the document proving the identity, or simple copies of the basic constituent documents of the legal person in language of the country of a constant residence;
- 3) to request at potential philanthropist copy of an extract of bank, with accounts in which it assumes to carry out donations, about movement of means under these accounts in this bank for the last a minimum half a year, and also the general data of bank on, when and as the philanthropist these accounts for a long time are opened;
- 4) to request of the potential philanthropist the letter of recommendation (референцию) serving bank;

5) to request at potential philanthropist letter of recommendation (референцию) corresponding consumer co-operative society (society), member and which shareholder it consists;

18. It is established that during preliminary check of conscientiousness of an origin of means, actives and property of the potential philanthropist, Board of Traderson Foundation or its President any two actions from the following list of actions are obliged to make a minimum:

1) to request at potential philanthropist copy of an extract of bank, with accounts in which it assumes to carry out donations, about presence and movement of means under these accounts in this bank for the last a minimum half a year, and also the general data of bank on, when and as the philanthropist these accounts for a long time are opened;

2) to request of the potential philanthropist the letter of recommendation (reference) serving bank with absence acknowledgement to it of any financial claims;

3) to request of the potential philanthropist any inquiry or other document confirming absence of any not executed financial obligations under credits or tax payments in the country of constant stay;

4) to request of the potential philanthropist the letter of recommendation (reference) other client (third party) which is also the client of serving bank with acknowledgement of absence to it any financial claims;

19. It is proclaimed that non-given or untimely representation of the documents requested by Traderson Foundation is not an unconditional obstacle for entering of donations: reasonable term (anyway no more than two months) for representation of some of these documents while it carries out entering of the donations can be given the Philanthropist. However non-given documents repeatedly requested by Traderson Foundation is the unconditional basis for stay of cooperation with Traderson Foundation or refusal of continuation of such cooperation.

20. It is proclaimed that the preliminary consent of Traderson Foundation to accept corresponding donations for the large sums carries out Traderson Foundation Board. The corresponding decision is made out in the form of the resolutions of Board signed by the President of Traderson Foundation. The positive resolution of Board of Traderson Foundation, both conditional, and unconditional, can be stated also in the form of a special additional inscription on the Contract on entering of charitable gratuitous donations. The corresponding question considers Board at the operative session, or it is accepted by a method simple on-named poll on channels of means of a beam coupling and telecommunication.

21. Thus finally the consent to accept a donation for the corresponding mentioned large sum gives Traderson Foundation Board following the results of judgement and explanation of all factors and circumstances of made operation and with the account of completeness and reliability of the received information on a financial condition of the philanthropist, given by the given potential philanthropist.

However, thus the Traderson Foundation Board with other things being equal as well has not the right to refuse entering of charitable donations to the potential philanthropist who is a member and the shareholder of any consumer co-operative society (a consumer society) even if the country of a residence of this philanthropist and does not coincide with the country of a residence of corresponding consumer co-operative society.

Following the results of the positive resolution of Board of Traderson Foundation the Contract with the philanthropist who is signed by the President of Traderson Foundation is made.

22. It is established that anyway the Fund Board is obliged to refuse to the potential philanthropist cooperation and in acceptance from it donations if the Board has documentary confirmed, well-founded, weighty and certain doubts in a diligent and lawful origin of money resources, actives and property which the philanthropist assumes to transfer to (pay) in favour of Traderson Foundation. In case of disagreements the dissatisfied philanthropist or not consent trustee has the right to appeal against against such decision (resolution) in the Traderson Foundation Board of guardians which decision on the given disputable (disputed) question is definitive and unconditional.

23. It is established that of means and actives of the arrived donations directly the President of Traderson Foundation further disposes. Operative targetting uses of the collected means of donations are carried out by Traderson Foundation Board, and strategic targetting - Trustee Council of Traderson Foundation or Board under its authorisation.

Thus the expenditure of sums of money of the arrived charitable payments (donations) is carried out in the form of payments of charitable grants (gifts, donations), or in the form of investments into securities, currency values, precious metals, real estate, other actives, but with an ultimate goal of further use of the received income on the charitable purposes.
